

3 - Point Questions

The story of the enchanted prince begins in a kingdom far, far away. In that kingdom there is a great palace where the king and his three beautiful daughters live. The princesses are all very beautiful but the youngest daughter is the most beautiful of all and the king loves her very much. She has long fair hair and blue eyes and she is tall and slim. A little white dog is her friend and he follows her everywhere she goes.

1. Look at the picture. The candles on the wall are
A) yellow B) white C) red
D) green E) purple
2. The king a book.
A) is reading B) is writing C) is seeing
D) is watching E) is playing
3. The dog is sitting near the
A) King B) Queen C) youngest daughter
D) oldest daughter E) window
4. A king's daughter is a
A) son B) prince C) queen
D) princess E) boy

15th INTERNATIONAL KANGAROO LINGUISTIC CONTEST 2018

PreEcolier Level (Class 1 & 2)

Time Allowed: 60 minutes

Near the palace there is a big, dark forest with tall trees. There is also an old, deep well full of water. The princess comes here every day with her dog to play with her favourite toy: a little golden ball. Here they are! The dog is running after the ball and jumping around happily. The princess is happy. She is looking around her at the beautiful forest and the clear water of the well. But ohh...! The golden ball falls into the water and disappears.

5. The princess to the forest every day.

- A) is going B) go C) does
D) goes E) are going

6. There are red flowers in the

- A) palace B) well C) water
D) hand E) grass

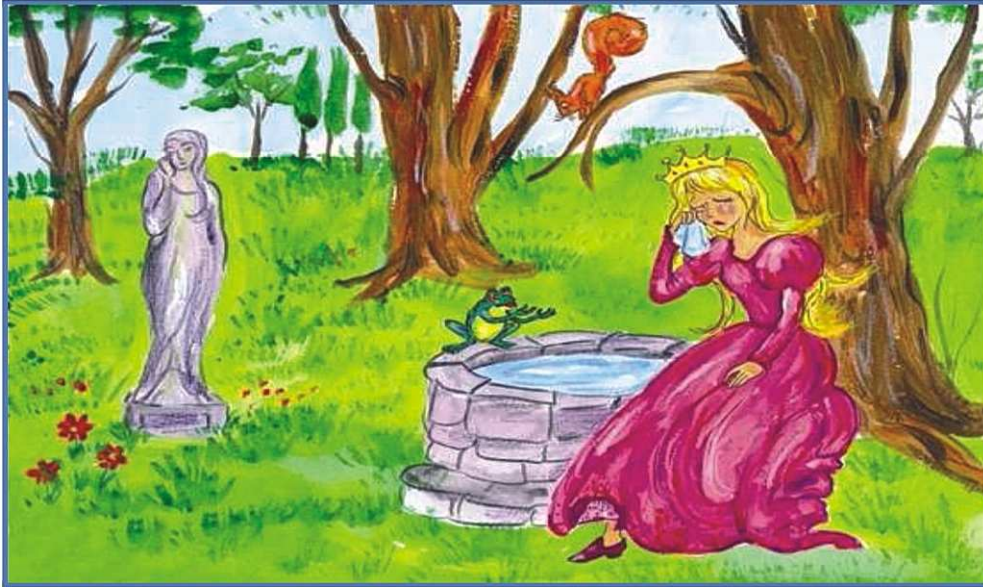

7. any water in the well?

- A) There is B) Am I C) Is there
D) Are E) Are there

8. Does the ball disappear?

- A) No, it doesn't. B) Yes, she does. C) Yes, it is.
D) Yes, it doesn't. E) Yes, it does.

4 - Point Questions

The princess is so sad now. She sits near the well and she starts crying. She doesn't know what to do to get her ball back. Her beautiful blue eyes are full of tears. Suddenly, she hears a voice:

'Don't cry, beautiful princess, because I can help you'.

She looks around and doesn't see anyone. There is only a little green frog near the well. The frog looks at her and says again:

'I can bring your ball back if you promise to do something for me, too.'

9. The girl is crying because she is

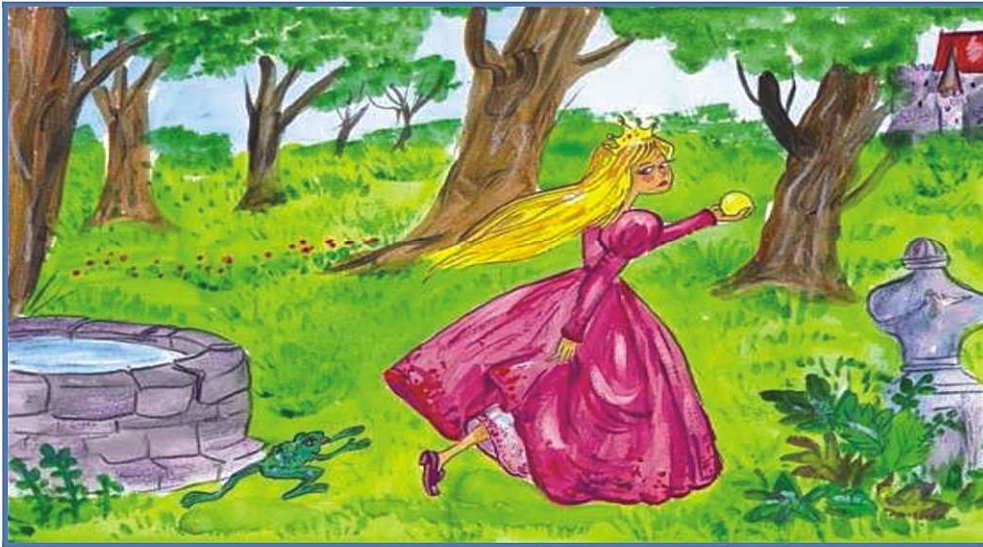

- A) happy B) lost C) sad
D) nice E) alone

10. Who is talking to the princess?

- A) a man B) a girl C) a princess
D) a frog E) a squirrel

11. The frog wants the girl to make a

- A) well B) ball C) promise
D) wish E) help

The princess is so surprised that she doesn't know what to do. She looks at the frog and thinks about her toy and then asks the little frog what it wants. 'Do you promise to take me to your palace and be my friend? Will you let me stay with you, eat with you and sleep in your bed?' 'I promise', says the princess quickly. The frog jumps into the well and he comes back with the ball. When the princess sees the ball, she takes it and runs to the palace, leaving the frog behind.

12.does the princess run? To the palace.

- A) Were B) Where C) Who
D) When E) Why

13. The princessthe frog with her.

- A) takes B) don't take C) isn't take
D) doesn't take E) doesn't takes

14. Which sentence is not true?

- A) The princess wants her ball back.
B) The princess leaves the ball in the grass.
C) The frog brings the ball back.
D) The princess runs back to the palace.
E) The princess leaves the frog near the well.

15th INTERNATIONAL KANGAROO LINGUISTIC CONTEST 2018

PreEcolier Level (Class 1 & 2)

Time Allowed: 60 minutes

At the palace, the king and his family are sitting at the table, eating. The princess tells them about the ball and the frog and everybody listens. Suddenly, there is a knock on the door and they hear the voice of the frog: 'Open the door, princess. You must keep your promise. You must take me with you, sit with me and give me food. I am hungry and I want to eat.' The princess doesn't want to let the frog in but the king tells her she must.

15. The princess is

- A) crying
- B) laughing
- C) playing with her dog
- D) talking to the king
- E) having dinner

16. The King tells the princess she must

- A) keep her promise
- B) forget about the ball
- C) never go to the well again
- D) eat something
- E) be more careful

5 - Point Questions

As soon as she opens the door, the frog jumps in and asks for food. He jumps on the table and starts eating from the girl's plate. She looks at him with disgust and she can't eat anything. But the frog doesn't care about that. He eats from the delicious roast chicken, the fried fish and the pudding and then he takes an apple and some grapes. He looks happy and satisfied.

17. In the picture the princess looks

- A) tired
- B) disgusted
- C) sad
- D) happy
- E) calm

18. You can see some purple in the picture.

- A) candles
- B) curtains
- C) clothes
- D) flowers
- E) balcony

19. The frog doesn't

- A) jump on the table
- B) care about the girl's reaction
- C) eat from the food
- D) ask for food
- E) look happy

15th INTERNATIONAL KANGAROO LINGUISTIC CONTEST 2018

PreEcolier Level (Class 1 & 2)

Time Allowed: 60 minutes

'I'm tired', says the frog. 'Now take me with you to your bedroom and show me where the bed is. I can't wait to sleep.' The princess doesn't want to touch him because his skin is cold and wet but the king tells her she must keep her promise. She takes him with two fingers and puts him in a corner of the bedroom but he isn't happy with this. 'Put me in your bed, don't let me on the floor. This is not comfortable at all.' That is too much for the princess. She takes him again and throws him into the wall. But what a miracle! He suddenly turns into a tall, handsome prince.

20. How does the princess feel?

- A) tired B) angry C) happy
D) sleepy E) sad

21. The frog's is wet.

- A) skin B) legs C) hands
D) fur E) scales

22. There is a above the prince.

- A) bookshelf B) bookcase C) book
D) books E) booklet

The princess is so surprised she can't say a word. The prince tells her that a bad witch turned him into a frog and that she was the only person who could save him. They go to the king together and tell him they want to get married. They have a wonderful wedding party. Then the princess says goodbye to her sisters and her parents and they all wish her happiness. The prince takes the king's daughter to his kingdom in a golden carriage. They all live happily ever after.

23. Only could turn the frog back into a prince.

- A) the witch B) the king C) a fairy
D) the princess E) an old woman

24. There are two in the carriage.

- A) man B) mans C) women
D) people E) men

well done

